

Junior and Senior High OWL Training

For facilitators of the Our Whole Lives sexuality course, grades 7-9 & 10-12
August 7-9

Sponsored by the PCD RE Committee

Our Whole Lives curricula were developed by the Unitarian Universalist Association in partnership with the United Church of Christ, with the goal of providing comprehensive values-based sexuality education for every age group. The 27 week Junior High course is the cornerstone of the program, providing facts about anatomy and human development along with opportunities to explore values, improve interpersonal skills, and examine the spiritual, emotional, social, and political aspects of sexuality. The 12-week Senior High course covers the same material for more mature teens.

- When? Friday, August 7 (5:00 p.m.) to Sunday, August 9 (3:00 pm)
- Where? Unitarian Universalist Congregation, Santa Rosa; 547 Mendocino Ave. Santa Rosa, 95401 (directions provided with registration confirmation)
- Fee: $200 per participant until July 17, 2007, $250 for late registration
- Leaders: Bonnie and Rick Dlott, both certified UUA trainers
- Registrar: Chuck Rosene, OWL Registrar; PCD Central Office, (510) 601-1437
- Local Host: Deborah Mason (707) 568-5381 or dre@uusantarosa.org4
- To Register: This course is designed to be taken by pairs from congregations. Registration includes home hospitality, meals, snacks, and materials for participants only. Please enclose payment and completed registration form; phone registration will not be accepted. You will receive registration confirmation following the deadline. Contact the registrar with questions about registration.
PCD will not hold reservations without payment.

PCD refund policy for cancellations: July 1-17 = 50%; No refund after July 17, 2009.

Home hospitality is guaranteed for those registering by the deadline of July 17, 2009. Please notify Deborah, the local host, of your travel arrangements and requirements if you need home hospitality.
